

Application for the Michael Keefe Scholarship

The Michael Keefe Scholarship honors the memory of Michael Keefe, son of Larry Keefe, Sr., a founder of the Construction Safety Council. Michael worked with the underprivileged children in Guatemala and helped them have a better life, until his untimely deaths a few years ago. The Michael Keefe scholarship provides one bi-lingual English-Spanish student the opportunity to attend the 145 Hour class with tuition and books provided free of charge.

To apply for this scholarship, please complete the application below and submit your essay to: Beverlee Carrick, Construction Safety Council, 4100 Madison St., Hillside, IL 60162; or, fax to 708-544-2371. Applications are due by October 15.

Note: You must be fluent in both English and Spanish to apply for this scholarship.
