

David S. Vaughn

708-349-4207
dmvaughn@yahoo.com

JOB OBJECTIVE:

To work within a company that will utilize my experience as a skilled laborer.

TECHNICAL SKILLS:

Certifications: Completed Scaffold Builders Course which meets the OSHA regulations for Builder and Dismantler of scaffold, IDOT Flagger Certification and Work Zone Safety/Traffic Control courses.

MASONRY Laborer

Safety and Health Practices: Comply with personal, tool and equipment safety rules; demonstrate proper lifting and laddering techniques, and safe working environment.

Laborer: Perform general construction tasks; tend to or assist bricklayers and other skilled craftsmen; dig, spread, and level dirt and gravel; lift, carry, and hold building materials, tools and supplies; clean tools, equipment, materials, and work areas; mix, pour, and spread concrete, mortar, gravel, and other materials; clean up of debris, grounds, and buildings. Work from plans and specifications. Use various tools and brick-cutting machines to cut and shape bricks. Erect scaffolding.

Tasks: Correct surface imperfections, fill chipped, cracked or broken bricks or tiles, using fillers, adhesives, and grouting materials. Modify material moving, mixing, grouting, grinding, polishing or cleaning procedures according to the type of installation or materials required. Mix mortar. Cut materials to specified size for installation, using power saw. Transport materials, tools, and machines to installation site. Able to work outdoors in extreme weather conditions.

Knowledge: Knowledge of materials, methods, and the tools involved in construction.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Crouch-Seranko Masonry. LLC. November 2007 - Present
J.T. Masonry June 1990 - November 2007

REFERENCES: Available Upon Request